A brief history of the College :

College of Education, Boko, a premiere teacher training institution in the south bank of Kamrup District of Assam, was established in the year 1998 with a view to scatter the rays of higher education and to meet the demand of the trained teachers in this educationally backward area. It was the result of some leading and thoughtful persons of the greater area who could realise the urgency and necessity of the Teacher Training College and so convened a general meeting on 31/5/1998 at Boko High school campus. In the meeting it was unanimously decided to start a B.Ed College and accordingly a strong Sponsoring Committee was constituted with Katiram Rabha, a freedom fighter and Ganeswar Saharia, a reputed teacher as President and Secretary respectively. Since then the College has not looked back. It started its classes at Boko High School own campus and later in the year 2000, it managed to shift in its present campus initially with 5 Bighas of land which now expanded to seven Bighas.

Location of the College :

The College is situated in the village Jarapara, 1.5 Km from Boko town in the district of Kamrup, Assam. According to GIS it is located at 91.2357 longitudinal and 25.97842 Latitudinal position. It is surrounded by eye-soothing landscape of nature. Beautiful paddy fields are in the East and North direction while the Boko Kanistha Mahavidyalaya and full view of NH 17 are in the west and south directions respectively.
